ABSTRACT

#/73/401

A multiple layered finish for a vehicle wheel surface that includes a first base layer formed from an organic material disposed upon a portion of the wheel surface.

The finish also includes a second layer formed form a first inorganic material that covers the base layer and a third layer formed from a second inorganic material disposed over the second layer.